

Moses' Ethnic Identity

Does God care about our culture and ethnicity? How does God meet us in our ethnic identity journey? How can he use our ethnicity and that journey in his mission? Let's take a look at this principle at work in the life of a prominent person in Scripture, Moses.

Pray: Ask the Lord to meet you as you study his word, to remember that he interacted with and used real people in real cultural contexts.

Read: Exodus 2:11-3:14. This is the account of the birth and calling of Moses.

Summarize: List the major scenes in this narrative.

Consider Moses' experience in light of the Ethnic Identity Wholeness Grid. For each scene, answer these two questions:

- 1. Which boxes on the grid might Moses be experiencing? Do you think he might be moving from one box to another?*
- 2. How does God use Moses in light of where he is on the ethnic identity grid, or how does God reveal himself in light of where he is on that grid?*
